How It Works

Jubilations provides free, full color selling sheets that your group will need for taking orders. You can specify the content; including your group's name, products, selling prices, and information your members need to tell about your fundraiser. In a matter of a few days, you can have your group selling.

Packaging and Delivery

Our products are packaged in sturdy white boxes to retard thawing as your members deliver to their buyers. We ship to you in insulated packaging utilizing dry ice, so your products will be VERY frozen upon delivery.

"Our church youth group had its best fundraiser this year by selling Jubilations. Compared to our other fundraisers, we didn't work as hard and because of the high profit, we raised more money. Jubilations provided us with great products that worked. I recommend this company to anyone looking for a good fundraising idea." ... Church Youth Director
